

Mouth of the River and the Harbour, in order that, he might ascertain whether or not the entrance is good for shipping, and the anchorage good in the river; and I requested Mr. Wendall to accompany me, as he was acquainted with several Chiefs, and could speak the Native Language.

Sept 28, 1819.— Accordingly, we took our passage to Niddee Niddee, with the Pilot John Butler, Messrs Frances and William Hall, and the Cai-
