penters and Labourers who were going to the New Settlements to forward the buildings, and prepare the ground for sowing of such seeds and planting such fruit trees as had been brought with us from Fort Jackson.

We arrived at Biddee, Biddee about one o'clock; and immediately proceeded on our tour, accompanied by three Chiefs - Shunghee's Son, Merrepooh from Ranghee-hoo, and Roda from the river Shuckangha, with six Natives to carry our baggage: more
