

accompanied us of their own accord, so that our whole party of Natives amounted to seventeen.

About four miles from Red-dee-Kiddee, we rested and took some refreshment. Here we met the Daughter of Munghee's Brother, and her Husband, with two Servants laden with potatoes. They immediately put down their baskets; and presented us with a portion for ourselves, and another for the Servants who attended us, and compelled
