

57

resolutely opposed, they would yield. His oration continued nearly an hour; and all listened to him with great attention.

When we sat down, I requested Mr. Kendall to tell him that I was very anxious for a reconciliation to take place, between Matanghee and Moodeewhy, and proposed to give each of them an acre, on condition of peace being made between them. In reply, Matanghee said that his young man had been severely wounded, and Moodeewhy only slightly. If Moodeewhy had been equally wounded, he would have come to terms of peace. However we still urged our terms of peace. In the mean time, Wedrepoint had been to visit some of Moodeewhy's people, and brought us a message from Moodeewhy, saying, that he could not visit us at