

left us since we met Mowonna wife at our separ-ture, and directed the Priest to accompany us to Ronghuhoo to learn if the active had arrived and if there was any prospect of her visiting there. Prior in order that they might prepare the timber for her,
 It would have been impossible for any Civilized Nation to pay us more attention than these Heathens did, so far as their Mains and Knowledge extended,

When we left Patomas Village, we were more than fifty in Company. Most of them going for an axe or a hoe or some small edged tool, they would have to travel, by land and water, from 100 to 140 Miles, in some of the worst Paths, through Woods that can be conceived and to carry their Provisions for these Journeys, A Chief's wife came with us all the way, and I believe her load could not be less than 100 lbs, and many carried much more, we had to travel on the Pitkeangha, Patomas boat and Mrs Kaydall and Puckey in his canoe for some miles up the River, till we came to a fall, when we landed in a wood about the Middle of the day, we estimated our Distance from the Heads to be between forty and fifty Miles or upwards, the Body of our Party had gone on.

We had now to travel through a very thick wood on the banks, and at particular points had to wade the River, some very fine young Men went before us, clearing the way as well as they could by trampling and breaking down the brush, wood and Branches of Trees, It was very fatiguing to walk
