People were killed, afterwards the Sailors shot Tarrises single in which fray an European was killed, the Chiefs on the South side of the Harbour as three White Men had been killed and only one New Zealander, demanded satisfaction according to the Law of Retaliation, for the Death of the two Europeans, when two New Zealanders were killed by themselves belonging to the Tribe, who had killed the two Europeans and afterwards three Bodies were taken in a Canoe alongside the Ship to show the Master that they had done Justice to the Crew by Punishing with Death their own Countrymen for the Murder of his Men, they Mentioned instances where their own people had been shot and no Satisfaction made for their Lives by the Europeans and that a Great Number had been killed by Captain Hood who Commanded a Vessel from Port Jackson in a Harbour between the River Thames and Mersey Bay and Intimated that these People would take Satisfaction for the Lives of their Relatives at Some future Period when Opportunity offered.
I then told them that a Law had been passed in England for the Punishment of any European who should woutonly Kill a New Zealander and that if any of the New Zealanders killed any European if they came to Port Jackson afterwards they should be hung, they were much Gratified with this Information I told them that King George wished to Protect them
