any way whatever — we spent the evening very pleasantly with Enakke and his People — I have met with [Te Waru] ^{Touranga} a Awarra Chief of ^{Touranga} ~~Touranga~~ Bay, already mentioned in my Journal to that Settlement — who made Peace with Tummaraunga — He was much pleased with our accidental meeting — and informed that he had set his People to work to make Mats, agreeable to the arrangements I had made with him when at ~~Touranga~~ ^{Touranga} Bay.
There were also several Chiefs from other distant Parts.
Enakke cleared one of his ^{houses} ~~Stores~~ for our accommodation in which we slept for the night — The Rev. Mr. Butler was much gratified with these People, and their Settlement at large — He had seen nothing so much like civil life as this Settlement where there is a very ^{extensive} ~~extensive~~ cultivation carried on, and where the Inhabitants have such an abundance of Provisions, and appear so healthy and happy. Enakke was very pressing for some Europeans to reside with them — Should any Missionaries hereafter be sent out I pointed out to them the ground where I wished their Houses to be built School &c to be readily agreed — I need not notice the Soil and other local advantages of this Settlement, in this Place, as I have mentioned it in a former Journal.
After singing an Hymn and offering up our united Addresses to the Father of Mercies we retired to rest
