

Lodgings for the night on the Beach - This Island appeared to be as large as the Isle of Wight and contains much good Land, would answer well for cattle or goats, as there is plenty of Grass & Water - Hogs also might be reared upon it to much advantage - Hogs in N. Zealand get very fat on the Turn Root alone - They require no pains to fatten them, and their meat is of the best quality -

Nov 8th. This morning the weather was stormy - we were bound bound all the day - the sea ran high in the Bay so that we could not venture from our Shelter - tho' very anxious to proceed on our Boat - the Cove we were in would be a fine Harbour for Ships as there appeared a sufficient depth of Water - Wood & Water easily procured for vessels in the Cove. Nov 9th. This morning the weather moderated and about 4 o'clock we left the Island for ^{Mogoea} Magoea where we arrived about 12 the middle of the day - It was our intention to leave the Boat here till our Return from Kiperoo, and to proceed up the Toyetumatta in a canoe - I met several Chiefs from Kiperoo amongst whom was Woodchanga one Chief from Tippoovani a Settlement about 20 miles from ^{Towvanga} ~~the~~ Bay above the Head of the River Thames - I had dined with this Chief when I was on that part of the country - His Kippah is situated about
