

1820

(125)

Nov 17 over and under the shelter of the land in the Bay of Plenty. Totto is considered the greatest warrior in the West side of New Zealand - he had the principal command when Shunghu was defeated with the loss of so many of his Tribe. [Reva] who commands now in Shunghu's absence told me he would not tell he had got the Head of Totto observing at the same time that his Heart ~~was~~ ^{was} smacked very big when he thought of his Father and two Brothers who were killed in that engagement, and he felt great pain and could not tell he had killed Totto. [at the battle of Mowemouai (one of Hongi's reasons for going to Eng^d for muskets)] At the time I left Huddell's Bay for Reporo, Reva was there preparing for an expedition against these People, and intended to set off in a few days - we now heard he was upon the upper part of the River Wyeora - After we had crossed the mouth of the Harbour, we proceeded up the River Wyeora till near dark, when we landed and remained all night on the Beach.

18th. About five o'clock this morning we proceeded up the River with the Tide, and arrived