

who had been killed and eat out Tunnakhee in an engagement with the People of that settlement, and the other was her late Husband's Sister - They were under a Shed alone together making loud lamentations, and wailing bitterly One had a mourning Cap or made of red hunting fringed round the edges with white dogs Hair about three Inches long which hung over his Face and concealed it in a great measure from view - The Cap was also bound round with a Ribbon made of India Print, Her Sister in Law was dressed in a similar manner only her Cap was made of Stobitan Cloth they appeared objects of the greatest distress, and recalled to my recollection St Paul's observation They sorrowed as men without Hope They made signs for me to sit down by them which I did, as soon as they were able to speak, they told me the melancholy cause of their grief - The daughter of Mowera said she should die with sorrow - He had two or three children by her and one fine girl about 14 Years of age who was greatly affected apparently with several Ulcers in her Joints - I had no doubt but this Disease had been communicated to her
