to anchor in Thorarika Bay about nine miles from the Superior Settlement Pangeehoo none went on shore this evening - It being the Sabbath I administered the Sacrament in my Cabin in the morning, and in the evening we had Divine service between Decks - We had preached every evening when the weather would permit to the Ships company from our leaving the port Jackson and had found it profitable to ourselves and may thro the Divine blessing prove profitable to them that heard us -

Monday 4th This morning I went on shore at Pangeehoo saw Messrs. Hall, King and Cowell they and their Families were all well. I learned that the Messrs. Leigh and White were settled at Bangarra and that Mr. Shepherd was with them. It was Mr. Leighs original intention to have settled to the southward of the Bay of Abasco either at Bangaree or in some other station nearer the River Thames - He had been to to the Southward and found that the Inhabitants were either killed or driven
