

native

11

to cure them - temptations to evil near again and they fall - I wish this may not be the case with some in the Mission - In reading the resolutions of the Parent Committee I endeavoured to impress their minds with the importance of the different subjects they contained and cautioned them against the consequences of their departing from their public duty in future - At a very late hour we closed our deliberations for that time, and deferred the further consideration of the resolutions to another opportunity -

Aug. 7

Monday 7th - This morning I left Ruddle Ruddle in company with the Rev. H. Williams and proceeded to Pykeea in order to fix upon a new station for him about 16 miles from the above Settlement, we examined the ground and determined upon Mr Williams taking up his residence there - The land is situated on the banks of the Cowa Cowa River - The head chief was gone to war - He had lived with me at Savrametta and I knew him to be a very worthy man and would make no objection to Mr Williams living there when he returned. It was therefore resolved to begin immediately to prepare a place for lodging the stores and a temporary building for Mr Williams & family - The natives belonging to the village were