

friends had been killed, and determined to go down to the Thames to see Enakbee to demand satisfaction - He assembled his forces, and took with him sixty war Canoes which formed a powerful Army - As soon as Shungee and his army arrived within sight of Enakbees Settlement he looked thro his glass and saw Enakbees colours flying - He called his Officers and asked them if they saw Enakbees colours, they answered they did Enakbee also blew his trumpet, and Shungee observed him dressed in his Regimentals amongst his people - Shungee then told his officers that Enakbee was determined to give them Battle Shungee then put on his coat of Mail his sword, Helmet and Red-coat - Wycatto also put on his Regimentals and they walked in the front of the Army - Shungee blew his trumpet and watched thro his glass Enakbees movements - Shungee was a little afraid of Enakbee, his Army being very strong - Shungee then called his eldest Son Charles, a youth about 16 or 17 years of age, and desired him to take a long spear, and tie an handkerchief at the end of it - and take a chief and a few more Men with him and bear it as a Flag of truce towards Enakbees army; as Shungee wished to have a parley with Enakbee before any action took place -

Part II.

Rev. J. Marsden's Journal.