

replied "I have seen General Maguorne". Shungee said he was very strong. Enabhee replied he was not afraid to meet him for he was strong too. Shungee then proposed to deliver up his eldest Son as an Hostage to Enabhee, if Enabhee would deliver up his Son to him, and that this should be the condition of their reconciliation, but Enabhee would hearken to no terms of accommodation. Shungee then took off his Helmet, and said to Enabhee "Do you see my face" Enabhee answered "yes" Shungee replied "you shall see my face no more untill we meet in Battle," and then bowed and returned to his own Army, and told them what had past. He desired his Men to get their dinners and to prepare for Battle, as soon as they could for he was determined to fight that day. The Men threw of their common mats put on all their War Mats and prepared for action. When they were ready, Shungee marched before them. When they came near Enabhees Army, Shungee wished to speak to Enabhee again, who appeared like a mad Man. His Officers advised him against it lest Enabhee should shoot him. However he advanced and fired his Musket into the Air. Enabhee fired and hit Shungee on the side when the ball was turned off by Shungees Coat of Mail. When one of Enabhees people rushed forward and struck Shungee behind the Head
