

1823

89

to the Mission, but now an unexpected storm seems to render abortive all that had been done.

I spent the night meditating upon the difficulties with which I was surrounded, while the stormy wind and rain still continued, and the raging sea to dash against the shores -

Sep. 9th ^{Sept 10th} At the ~~return~~ of Day, we observed the Ship still upright, but appeared to be driven higher upon the Reef - I now determined to return to Thudlee Thudde in Mr Halls boat, with Mr & Mrs Leigh -

We had suffered two dreary and stormy days and nights, under the most painful anxiety for the safety of those in the Ship - We now left the Island as soon as we could for the Missionary Settlement, where we arrived about 9 O'clock - Our friends had not heard of the loss of the Ship until our arrival, as there had been no communication between the different settlements on account of the severe weather.

We were very kindly received by the Brethren. I took up my lodgings with Mr Kemp, and Mrs & Mr Leigh with the Rev Mr Butler - I informed the Brethren in what situation we had left the Ship and requested that every assistance might be given to land the Passengers and Baggage. The beach was about 12 or 14 miles from the Settlement

Four boats were immediately sent off. Mr Halls boat took the Women and children the same Evening to Rangee Ho, and two