

1214 Oct 31

had been made upon Sungenes mind in his last interview with Mr Kendall - Mr Kendall when he was at Tuddce Tuddce on the 4th ultim, told me he would bring his family up to the settlement, and fix them in sight of the Society's Store, where they should remain until they starved to Death - His declaration showed the desperate state of his mind, and how he is governed by unsubdued passions - After many arguments Mr B saw if Mr Kendall came to Tuddce Tuddce, that he could not remain, he was greatly agitated, and had many painful reflections, and the charge of late inebriety to answer for, as I told him it was impossible for me to look over such a charge without an investigation, without committing myself and the interest of the Mission - I recommended him to weigh well the charge, and the probability of his conviction before he attempted to justify his conduct - [Saturday ^{Nov 1} Nov. 1] - I left Tuddce Tuddce this morning with the Rev^d J Butler and Mrs Lugh, and proceeded on board the Dragon, in order to see what accommodations could be provided for him and his family, as I had fully determined that he should be removed from A Zealand - Mr Butler was very unhappy, he could not but see the great impropriety in his conduct, as the head of the Mission it was his duty to have been an example to all the other Missionaries of Mekeup of wisdom, and godliness, he should as their Shepherd have watched over them with pious