

I administered the sacrament in my cabin in the morning, and in the evening we had divine service between Decks - we had preached every evening when the weather would permit to the Ships Company from our leaving Port Jackson - and had found it profitable to ourselves and may thro the divine blessing prove profitable to them that heard us -

Mem. 11th This morning I went on shore at Ranghee boe, saw Mr. P. Hall King & Corvell - They and their Families were all well - I learned that the Rev. Dr. Leigh & White were settled at Wangaroo and that Mr. Sheppard was with them - It was Mr. Leighs original intention to have settled to the Southward of the Bay of Islands near the River Thames - He had been to the Southward, but found that the ants were either killed, or driven from their Nests by the wars that have taken place along the Coast since I was there three years ago - He and his Colleague had steered their course to the Northward, about 5 miles from the Bay of Islands - There is a very considerable Population in the Harbour of Wangaroo where the Bay was cut off about 16. years ago - It was my intention to have fixed the Rev. Mr. William in that Station when we left Port Jackson and purposed that Mr. Sheppard should
