

the desire of the Rev. S. Leigh, who was so unwell that he could not write himself - Mr. Leigh requested me to go over and see him; and arrange with the Chief (commonly called George), for the land they wished to settle upon as they could not come to any terms with him. From the Account Mr. Jernar gave me of Mr. Leigh's State of Health I was satisfied that he was totally unfit for his Situation at Wangarou - that he could not bear the Privations and Anxiety inseparably connected with a missionary's Situation in a new Station, in an heathen Land. I determined if possible to visit him before my Return to Port Jackson, and see if any thing could be done to administer to his Comfort and Relief - Mr. Jernar prepared me much on this subject, as he thought Mr. Leigh was so ill that he was not likely ever to recover -

Satur. 9th I remained on board all the Day, to arrange the necessary measures for landing the Stores &c. Mrs. W. Mearns and her Children went to Kiddee Kiddee, & Mrs. Jernar, her little Girl & maid Servant were taken to Kangsee hoo until some opportunity offered for Mr. Jernar and Family joining their mission at Wangarou -

Sun. 10th This Day I preached at Kangsee hoo and
