

in their own language, and repeated some Prayers - I was much gratified with the Progress they had made since my last visit, and the Prospect thus afforded of their future welfare - There can be no Doubt of the Success of the mission, if those employed in it will only do their Duty - The Children are as fine Subjects to work upon as any in the known world - After we had heard the natives perform their Service, I expounded a Portion of the Scriptures, and the evening was concluded with our united worship of that God who has made of one blood all nations that dwell upon the face of all the Earth.
The voice of Joy and Gladness shall yet be heard in the barren Deserts of W. Scotland.
The Divine Promises must be fulfilled, which assure us, that in that great multitude which no man can number, there shall be some of every nation, Kindred, Tongue & People - mon. 25. I had summoned a full Committee to meet at Reddie Reddie to day; and early this morning prepared the different subjects which I wished to bring under Consideration relative to the Expensive of the public Houses, the public Buildings, Schools &c.

The Committee met at the appointed time; and we did not close our deliberations
