

He assembled his forces, and took with him sixty war canoes, which formed a powerful Army ^{met} as soon as Shungsee and his Army arrived within sight of Enakkee's Settlement, he looked thro his Glass, and saw Enakkee's Colours flying He called his Officers and asked them if they saw Enakkee's Colours, they answered they did - Enakkee also blew his Trumpet, and Shungsee observed his Drums in Regiments amongst his People Shungsee then told his Officers that Enakkee was determined to give them battle - Shungsee then put on his Coat of mail, his Sword Helmet and red Coat - very cotta put on his Regiments also, and they marched in the front of the Army Shungsee blew his Trumpet, and watched thro his Glass Enakkee's movements - Shungsee was a little afraid of Enakkee, his Army was very strong - Shungsee then called his eldest son Charles, a youth about 16. or 17. years of Age; and desired him to take a long Spear, and tie an Handkerchief at the End of it, and take a Chief and a few men with him, and bear it as a Flag of Truce towards Enakkee's Army; as Shungsee wished to have a Parley with Enakkee before any Action took place - when Enakkee observed Shungsee's son, with the Flag, advancing towards his Camp, he sent out his eldest son Kuppee with a Spear in one Hand, and a Tomahawk in the other, to shew that he would come to no Parley - when Charles & the Chief came within Gun shot, Enakkee

Flag of Truce

The Chief
Charles shot while passing the flag of Truce