

General
Manning

Enakkee fired and shot the Chief thro' the Head when he fell - Charles, and his little party now turned and ran to their own camp - Shungsee was looking thro' his Glass and saw the Chief fall - Shungsee's son cried much, and the whole Army sat down and mourned for the death of the Chief until afternoon - In the Evening Shungsee walked about to see if he could meet with Enakkee, but could not fall in with him. Both Armies continued in their Stations for three days - on the morning of the fourth day, with two or three Chiefs Shung-see advanced towards Enakkee's Army in the sight of both Armies - Enakkee came forward to meet him - Shungsee had his Coat of mail on, and his sword, but no Gun - his Helmet also and regimental Coat - Shungsee put both his Arms under his Coat of mail to show Enakkee that he came peaceably, and that he wished to come to some terms of Reconciliation with him - Enakkee was dressed in English Regiments - when Shungsee advanced, he took off his Helmet, made a bow & saluted Enakkee - Enakkee turned ~~turned~~ on one side, and spurned his Complement - Shungsee said he did not wish to fight, Enakkee said he was determined to fight - Shungsee said "I have seen King George, as you may see by my war mat. (in Coat of mail) my ~~Sword~~ sword, and Helmet." Enakkee replied - "I have seen General Mackenzie"
