

work. Some have been weak and lead ^{us} astray.
Some have been wicked & have fallen from their steadfastness and wounded the Cause; others have been idle and unfaithful; others have been worldly minded, and have lost sight of the interest of the mission by paying too great attention to their own welfare. The mission has not only suffered for the want of support, from those whom the Christian world supported; but from powerful secular enemies and infidels who have strove to overthrow it ~~altogether~~ altogether. But blessed be God, it still maintains its ground - Some have been faithful like Caleb and Joshua; and these will take the land as certain as ever Joshua and Caleb put the Israelites in full possession of the land of Canaan. Difficulties of every kind must be fairly met and opposed, and the Christian world must be determined to plant the Gospel Standard upon the strong-holds and fortifications of the Prince of Darkness, and his Kingdom will finally fall - I trust unto God are all his works from the beginning; and he will accomplish his divine purposes whatever instruments are employed in the work. He appointed Saul King over Israel, as well as David the man after his own heart, and accomplished his divine will by them both - faithful in its success

Committee meeting

About one o'clock I left Hedden Hedden in order to hold a committee at the Station of the Rev. J. Williams on the Canada Cause
