

where I had summoned all the missionaries to attend - we sat upon public business until a late hour, and afterwards we all remained in his flat for the night -

Sep. 2. This morning we closed the business we entered upon last night - I now considered all the public concerns arranged as far as I could - After breakfast I went on board the Prometheus, and agreed with the master for the passage of the following persons to Port Jackson, the Rev. Mr. & Mrs. Leitch, the Rev. Mr. Kendall & Family, and ~~Mr. & Mrs. Lowell~~ Mr. Lowell & Family, being 15 persons in the whole - I afterwards called upon Mr. Kendall to arrange with him for the delivering up of all the public stores in his possession, and purchased his sawed timber towards building the Rev. Mr. Williams' house &c. and afterwards crossed the Harbour to inform Mr. Williams what I had done, in order that he might take immediate steps to remove the stores, timber &c. to prevent any disputes with the natives afterwards, when Mr. Kendall was gone - and then proceeded to Kiddlee Kiddlee where I arrived after dark extremely cold having been several hours upon the water -

arrange
meals for passage & other arrangements

wedn. 3. Sep. To day I took my leave of Kiddlee Kiddlee with an intention to return no more this voyage - I went to visit Mr. James Muller's station about 14 miles from Kiddlee Kiddlee. Mr. Kendall, John Muller and white accompanied me visit to

Mr. James
Muller's
station