

Mr Kendall arrives

In the evening I was informed the Rev. Mr. Kendall was arrived at Keddree Keddree. He did not visit the missionary settlement, but went to Shonghee, with whom he remained all night - A strong proof of the state of his mind, when he could prefer on the Sabbath evening the Company and conversation of Surveys to the Society of his Country men in the very sight of their Homes - I suspected his Intention was ~~evil~~ not good, but to prejudice and inflame Shonghee's mind against myself and all the missionaries -

26. This morning Mr. Kemp sent to invite Mr. Kendall to breakfast, but he declined coming - I wished Mr. Kemp to do this, to soften things as well as we could knowing the influence ~~Shonghee~~ he had over Shonghee's mind - Mr. Kemp afterwards went over to Mr. Kendall to request him to settle his Accounts with him as he was at Keddree Keddree, but he ^{to} refused - Shonghee was very distant with Mr. Kemp - ~~he~~ wanted to know why I ~~was~~ ^{all the} ~~was~~ ^{misprisions} ~~was~~ ^{were} angry with Mr. Kendall, and all the other missionaries - ~~and~~ ^{Shonghee told} Mr. Kemp that Mr. Kemmer was a bad man, and should not stay at Keddree Keddree and made many more unbecomable observations.

Mr. Kendall had promised to build ^{Shonghee} ~~him~~ a House and to come ^{and} to live with him at Keddree Keddree I saw he had wrought powerfully upon Shonghee's mind - Mr. Kemp invited Shonghee to dine with me but he ~~would~~ ^{declined} not come - at length Mr. Kendall went away without calling upon me, or any of the missionaries - After dinner I called upon Shonghee he ~~received~~ rather he was rather distant - we had some conversation upon ^{indifferent} ~~different~~ things, when I returned Home - I was very much bent to think that Mr. Kendall should act such an unchristian part as it appeared from Shonghee's conduct he was doing
