

after leaving the Dragon I proceeded to Payson and remained all night with the Rev. W. Williams.
29. This morning I requested the Rev. W. Williams to accompany me to Mr. Kendall, as I had some Accounts to settle with him on Account of the Society - being aware of his rude and violent conduct, I did not think it prudent to go alone we met him in the boat crossing over the Bay and returned with him to his House. ~~we~~ I settled my business with him, as far as related to the Dinner we had purchased of. At length he began to break out in the most violent manner and to cast severe Reflections upon me & the Society - The Rev. W. Williams attempted to point out the Inpropriety of his conduct, and to pacify his mind - He soon became outrageous with Mr Williams, and extremely rude - while we were in Conversation ~~Mr~~ Miss<sup>rs</sup> Moore & another came in - ~~I wished to know if I asked Mr Kendall~~ ~~to inform me whether he intended to go to Port~~ I informed Mr Kendall that I had provided a Passage for him in the Dragon - and wished to expecting he would tell me when he would be ready to embark - but in stead of this he continued to pour out his abuse & reproaches upon the Society for their injustice to him, and to reflect upon my ~~to~~ conduct also. I made very little reply to all his bitter language; Mrs. W. Thomas
