

have permitted I wished much to Generals - Shunghee's mother was one, a son who had been killed in battle at the river. I have was a second, a Chief who had fallen in action at Serranok Kee and, another great Chief who had died a natural death at Yambees River - Shunghee had along conversation with Mr. Kemp before he went about Mr. Kendall - he told Mr.

Kemp that Mr. K. had purchased the 4 rumpers long boat for him to go to war with; that Mr.
Kendall intended to come to live at Keddee Kiddlee.
Shunghee said we ought to pardon him now and supply him with what he wanted from from the Society's Stores, and if we did not he should be very angry, for Mr. Kendall was his Friend, and had done much for him - Mr. Kemp pointed out to Shunghee the inappropriateness of Mr.
Kendall's conduct - which was the cause of our withdrawing support from him - Shunghee said, we acted very different from them; for if one Chief took another's wife, they had one fight, and there was an end of it, but we continued our anger - Mr. Kemp wished to know how he was to act, if Mr. Kendall made application for supplies, if he ^{I decreed that} (Mr. Kemp) apprehended any evil consequences would follow from a refusal, he was to comply with Mr. Kendall's application if the Stores would allow of his being supplied on Mr. Kendall paying for the Articles he obtained - Should Mr. Kendall refuse to pay
