Dear Sir

W<sup>m</sup> Hall has been at Leeds to have an interview with Mr. Marsden - they seem mutually pleas'd with each other. - Lewis Johnson has begun his studies, a little time will show what prospect there is of his making a successful proficiency -

Since I last wrote, I have received two guineas more for the Missionary Society; so that on the whole you will have to add on my account 5 guineas to the sum sent by Mr. Thomas from S<sup>r</sup> Cuthbert's -

I remain

Sir
your faithful Serv<sup>t</sup>

J. Fawcett
