Rev. Sir. A 498 010
I wrote my first in haste as time would not of deliberacy before the return of post; upon a second consideration
I would not hesitate much to go with one person, provided he were a proper person and well informed, and I would like to have some acquaintance of him previous to such an arduous undertaking. but to go alone would be presumption, I could not see the least probability of success, but far be it from me to shrink or deviate from what you and I first agreed to when in Leeds; I hope I shall never have the least thought of it; my earnest prayer is that the Lord may be my guide and leader, and that he may bear me up through all the dangers and difficulties that I must inevitably meet with, and I fear not but through his gracious permission and divine assistance, I shall be enabled to persevere to the end and come off conqueror, but why does not Mr. Cooper go at the same time.
