My dear Sir

I do ^{not} choose to pay Mr Halls debts without first obtaining your approbation of the sums specified.
He seems a good Man & I learn from a very able judge that he has made great proficiency in the art of ship building. Mr^r Barnes, I am persuaded, has taken great pains with him.

I have made enquiries respecting Miss Barrell, and I learn, that, during her residence in Suffolk, she conducted herself in a very unexceptionable manner. I hope that she will make Cooper a good wife, if she sh^d be united to him; you, by seeing & conversing with her, may be able to form some idea on the subject.

Perhaps you may have an opportunity of learning how she conducted herself in London.

Mr Hall's Bills are as follows.

To Mr Barnes for instruction in the art of ship build.	26. 5. 0.
Carriage of Box	18. 4
Cooper for black paint	13. 0
Northen for an ivory scale & drawing pen	17. 0
Turner for drawing Instruments	5. 16. 8
Wright and Bowden for wood for making moulds	1. 13. 2
Clark Lincoln for sawing the wood	12. 6.
Francis Branton for making the moulds	1. 6. 0
Mrs Carter for Board of Lodging	14. 17. 0
For intended journey to Carlisle & return &c	12. 12. 0.
	65 10. 8.

I have examined the bills & believe them very right & proper.

If you give me commission to draw upon you for 65. 10. 8

I will advance the whole sum: in the mean time, I will let

Hall have twenty or thirty Guineas on acct. He has recd
10. 10. 0 fr Mrs Scott which he has spent in journey to Leeds in several journeys to Paul with Mr Barnes to examine the situation of the line, which is now constructing there &c &c.

You must tell me where I must draw upon you: i.e.
where I must specify in the bill your residence.

I was from home when your letter arrived.

I have not learnt the particulars of the revolution in New South Wales, but I am glad, that you suppose it may eventually turn out for the good of the colony.

The wonderful power of God is exhibited, in a very striking manner, in his bending the purposes of Men into a direction from what they intend and causing even bad passions to subserve his glory.

I remain, dear Sir, Yours very truly.

Thos. Dicks.
