Dear Sir

Rev. J. Hammond to Secretary

we are now waiting for the wind to change in Cornwall Roads - as soon as it comes to the east we sail. Wm. Hall, his wife and John King are on board and well. I have no doubt, but they will be pretty comfortable. John King I take entirely to myself, he will live in the same manner as my family. William Hall as he has a wife, he will require a little more attention. I have laid in for two sheep, one Doyler Grouse, in case they should want now and then a little fresh meat. when we kill a sheep we shall give them a part.

I was very happy to find when I went on board, a Mr. Sedander, a very fine young man, who came lately to England and is now going back again to his own
