My dear Sir

My having been extremely engrossed by other Business, has alone prevented my addressing you ere now on a Subject which was first brought under my Notice by the Report of our of a last Trip: See 4th Anniversary of in June last. Let me refer you to the Report page 25. If you will there see Mr Marden's suggestion of a Vessel to be statedly employed in sailing between New South Wales & the different Mand in South Seas &c. The Idea, on the face of it seems to me a good one. I confess it was a great Recommendation of it to me that
