be against forming any Association in this Country for executing of plan but that it would probably not be difficult to raise among the various divisions of Religious World, such as Form. as con-added to what could be obtained in N. S. Wales they would suffice for carrying the Scheme into effect; those who should subscribe in this Country, being exempt from all responsibility of the management being left entirely to Mr Marsden & such Conductors as he should see fit to associate with himself for such a purpose - My excellent friend Mr. Hardcastle approves of this mode of proceeding - He offers his good Offices with of great Missionary Society of hopes that it might be prevailed on provided of Object would really be effected,
