Dear Sir

111 - New Castle Street

I had an interview at the office of Lord Bute with Mr. Peck about Mr. Kendall. I find that Govt would probably send Mr. Kendall in a settled at their own expense & give him a grant of land. Whether they will do more is doubtful, but it is clear I think that they will not send him all the expense of sending & maintain. Learning by relations out of the fact stones (which I am) the passage & until the land will support them his wife & children. Now we are & I must go to school no matter we are just a party to make no good conditions as we can with you & to please the Soc^y to bear that share of the expense which we cannot pay or pay to the undertaker.

I should hope that we shall be able to reduce the expense of the Soc^y within moderate bounds, but we cannot proceed without clear instructions.

In haste, Dear Sir,

Yrs very sincerely
