stones (both during the passage & until the lead will support them) his wife & a child. Now Mr. W. & I must go to London no matter we are justly to make no good conditions so we can with few & to please the Soc^y to bear that share of the expense which we cannot prevail on Soc^y to undertake.
I should hope, that we shall be able to reduce the expense of the Soc^y within moderate bounds, but we cannot proceed without clear instructions.

In haste, Dear Sir,

Yrs very sincerely

W. B. Huntington

Be so good as to let me hear from you without delay.
