Dear Sir

I have a sudden call into the country & shall probably leave Down tomorrow morning. It is therefore most likely that I cannot join the will be force in the application to the Sec^y of State about Mr Mendel. I will however leave your letter & also Mr Massden's with Mr Wilberforce who will, I believe, stay in this matter a few days longer.

I find my nephews very desirous of understanding the true

Assistant, if you think he will suit you, I he wishes to be advanced to try for a Postmaster how this will be, on the condition of giving his assistance gratuitously during that time, if on the trial you should find that he has not time enough for your business, or will not suit on any other account.
 I will enclose a letter from him to me, giving me ^{the result} ~~the result~~ of some inquiries I desired him to make respecting the time which he looks at the Bank have to spare. — He would have occasional assistance from his Brother (also in the U.S.
 House) & from one of my Sons who is with Mr Macaulay, after provided more than usual ~~with~~ by business. On the whole I should like you would find him do very well.

(I find Mr Macaulay has a similar note); but if you have an opportunity of better acquaintance from some other ~~quarter~~ ^{quarter}, you will of course think no more of my re-stence, for you certainly ought to do the best you can for the Soci-ety.

If you wish to stick to my new ~~idea~~ ^{idea}, a letter addressed to Mr Wm Robinson, Baggage warehouse, India House, will do.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours truly

W. Robinson

My nephew's letter was intended only for my eye.
