L. Balington to Secretary

Dear Sir

Mr. Balington

I have just seen Lord Othello and he agrees to carry out Mr. Kendall & his wife & five children to New South Wales, giving them ship-room gratis, & also considering Kendall as to be read on shipboard & afterwards to have the usual rations on shore after his arrival as long as is usual in ^{similar} the cases of those who go to the settlers, as Kendall is to be. In case his wife is qualified to be a school-mistress there, & will undertake responsibility ~~that she will~~, she too will have rations on shipboard & on shore,
