Bro. & Dear Sir,

498 036

Since it was thought advisable for me to dispose of my school, which I did at Christmas last, and from which period I have been without any salary, I find it has cost me already for lodgings and Board, including the money which I have laid out for wearing apparel &c. for the comfort and use of my family the sum of £93. 18. 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ — I shall also have to provide some Tea, Sugar, Butter, Potatoes, Soap, Candles and some other trifling articles for and during the voyage, I therefore trust that the Committee of the Church Missionary Society will allow me the money which I have expended (considering the fifty Pounds which has been granted to me) and after I arrive at the Colony give me leave to draw upon Mr. Marsden at the end of every half year for what I may necessarily expend for Food &c. for my family until it shall please Divine Providence to enable me to support myself ^{& them} without calling upon the Society for assistance. I should have been happy had it been in my power to have gone out without taking any thing from the Funds of the Society, but
