

Apr 22/13

would undoubtedly strengthen my influence with him, with regard to any little plans which I might think it prudent to adopt in favour of the eternal interests of the People on Board, could you procure a letter to him from any weighty friend who is connected with the East India Company—

I owe a balance of 6-6⁰⁰ to Mr Taylor, Salesman in Marylebone Lane, and a trifle to Mr Do Surgeon, whose name I had will you be so enough request Mr Woodd to send Gibbark to discharge them & put the amount to my acc^t—

Be pleased to recommend me & my family to the kind remembrance of our religious friends when they approach the Throne of Grace. Thus, in the midst of a thoughtless people, & being bereft of the enjoyment of public Ordinances we have indeed constant need of watchfulness & prayer. I have no company on board — I am