

May 4/13

If you can enclose me Ten Pounds in silver and either draw it of Mr Woodd, or give me a Note to Mr Hardden that I have received it in part of my Salary I shall esteem it a particular favour, you can let it be packed up secure in a small box and send it to Mr Warbleton Gray. I am very to trouble them but I have no other friend at Portsmouth. I find them very useful and expect to sail on Sunday next a few
