Sir

Your parcels for Mr Kendall have both arrived safe, & have been delivered to him; I have procured a passage through a British before for Mrs Dawkins in the George shortly expected from the River. I am very much obliged to you for the Supper but treatise, & also for the Sermons & Pamphlets removed to day, which I shall endeavour to circulate. but being unexpectedly called from home for a short time, fear I cannot do much at present. If you have any more parcels for Mr Kendall, be so good as to
