than of a Missionary kind properly so called. — But if any Gentlemen who are under this impression will but attentively peruse Mr. Mardden's various communications, they will, I am persuaded, lay aside those ideas, and admit the reasonableness of Mr. Mardden's measure.
Let me beg you to have the goodness to inform me whenever the subject is to be under consideration, if I mean, it is to be regarded
