Sir,

According to your advice I have communicated with Mr Marsh. The subject of my conversation with you, when in Town my education having been so very wide from that of a Clergyman I consider that the Church is not the sphere for me to act in.
However anxious I may be for the advan-ment of the Kingdom of our Lord. I am willing to occupy a more humble station. and having been brought up in an active service. I offer myself in an other capacity. New Zealand has principally engaged my attention, and as I understand that your society - em-
