may be useful & accompanied with the Divine Blessing.

Shinghee & Waikato wished me to accompany them to London, as they want to see Capt. Moore before his departure. Mr Leigh who had a particular desire to take them with him, to show them <sup>to</sup> some of his friends will pay the expense of their journey & bring them back to Cambridge, so that I shall be under no necessity of leaving my work in order to oblige them. Do let Shinghee and Waikato have

- 2 Very thick blankets each -
- 2 very thick worsted or flannel night caps each -
- 1 Pair of pantaloons each
- 1 Pair of shoes each -

Do send me Pikes Hebrew Lexicon - Mr Coates's friend the Rev. Mr Howell has a copy - I am Revd & Dear Sir, your faithful Servant
Thos. Rendall

There are already sufficient blankets upon the beds for Shinghee's men - but more blankets for himself Shinghee wishes to have 2 blankets for himself. They say they do not feel warm & 2 for his friend.
