

MS. 498/93

H. Norwich to Josiah Pratt

Dear Sir,

An application made by you, in the first instance and seconded by Two such respectable men, as Mr. Wood and Mr. Bickersteth, is entitled to so much attention that I feel no hesitation in promising to admit Mr. Kendall, as a candidate for the Order of Deacon, at my next Ordination._ It may perhaps be advisable to give Him an hint, that in case of his return to England, He will do well to wait upon the Bishop of London, before He officiates as a Clergyman in this country.— The case is new; I merely throw out the Idea, for your consideration —

Yours, &c

Sincerely

H: Norwich.
