

If you approve of Mr Kendall, executing their commission, let me hear from you, any other officers of the Society not accompanying them

My dear Friend — Am. Dec. 4/20

The regard, which I feel to the Ch. Miss^r, dictates this letter — I have spent this day with the New Zealanders, & am truly concerned to state that they are quite dissatisfied with the presents the Society have appropriated for them — You must consider that these men are of high importance in their country, & men of very quick sensibility as to the attention paid to them — They draw comparisons between the presents made to Toi & Teteoee & themselves, & feel themselves injured by the inferiority of their presents —

Nov. 17/20

They are men of lively gratitude & violent resentments, & it strikes me that the Society shd endeavour to erase every unfavorable impression, which I am grieved to observe, has unfortunately possessed their mind. — Mr Kendall I think is too delicate in speaking to you on the subject, but I shd not be discharging the duty of regard to the welfare of the Society, if I did not plainly state that their minds seem much hurt.

Aungree to day appeared quite engaged, & spoke as if he id not ^{receive} ~~refuse~~ the presents — He remarked that the users given to Joig & Terne were larger & more numerous than ^{to} them — Mr Nicolas & Mr Kendall are sitting by me & relate that themselves will feel ashamed to be seen by his family with less property than Toi

- Seven members of the Society are with me, & we all unite in recognizing the propriety, the policy, the duty which, the good, the welfare of the Ch. Mission involves in this transaction.

Mr N. & Mr K are of opinion that not less than 12 large axes, & 12 small axes, 6 adzes, 12 hoes, 6 spades, & one whaling knife should be given to each of them. This, if a watch, value about 2 guineas, were added to ~~not exceed~~, & a suit of clothes, would not exceed 15 each; & really 30 w^h well spent to secure their friendship & protection = If you approve of this I do recommend for Mr Kendall

Nov. 17/21
to go with them to select the articles, & we are of opinion this is requisite in order to satisfy them; & enable them to distribute to their relatives when they return.

— when I have time I will write out a fair copy of the address I delivered this morning, & suggest what might be added as an appendix from the substance of the apology which I drew up last year. — With best wishes for the success of the Mission, I am My dear Friend very affectly yours
