

Nov. 17/20

They are men of lively gratitude & violent resentments, & it strikes me that the Society sh^d endeavour to erase every unfavorable impression, which I am grieved to observe, has unfortunately propagated their mind. — Mr Kendall I think is too delicate in speaking to you on the subject, but I sh^d not be discharging the duty of regard to the welfare of the Society, if I did not plainly state that their minds seem much hurt.

Shunghe to day appeared quite engaged, & spoke as if he id not ^{receive} ~~refuse~~ the presents.

He remarked that the users given to Joig & Terne were larger & more numerous than ^{to} them — Mr Nicolas & Mr Kendall
