to go with them to select the articles, & we are of opinion this is requisite in order to satisfy them; & enable them to distribute to their relatives when they return.

Rev. J. Pratt

Daughtry Street

— when I have time I will write out a fair copy of the address I delivered this morning, & suggest what might be added as an appendix from the substance of the apology which I drew up last year. With best wishes for the success of the Mission, I am My dear Friend very affectionately yours
