Thomas Kendall to Josiah Pratt

Speke 18. Dec. 1820

Rev.^d and Dear Sir

As the Chiefs sit down at Table with the Cabin passengers (for in fact there is no other place for them) and occasionally drink wine &c. I think it would be right to pay Capt.ⁿ Macpherson the same for them as he is paid for other passengers - Shunghee & Waikato will then enjoy the benefit of the cabin fire & be comfortable & satisfied I wish you would have the goodness to arrange matters with the Captain as well as you can.

I have now in hand £4. s 8. d6 which was not deducted out of the 27 with the sum of two pounds which I received of the Clerk at Billingsgate - the other day. I shall send the account of our Expences before we sail & deduct the same [?] from the above

I am Rev^d & Dear Sir

Your very obed serv. Tho Kendall
