Rev^d and Dear Sir

As the Chiefs sit down at Table with the Cabin passengers (for in fact there is no other place for them) and occasionally drink wine &c. I think it would be right to pay Capⁿ Murchison the same for them as he is paid for other passengers - Thynhe & Warkato will then enjoy the benefit of the cabin fire & be comfortable & satisfied I wish you would have the goodness to arrange matters with the Captain as well as you can.

I have now in hand £ 50 not deducted out of the 27. - & the sum of two pounds which I received of the Clerk at Bellegrove the other day. I shall send the account of our Expenses before we sail & deduct the same from the above
I am Rev^d Dear Sir
Your very obed^t Serv^t M. Hobbs
