Thomas Kendall to Josiah Pratt

Speke Sheerness. Dec<sup>r</sup>. 22. 1820

Dear Sir

I have received all of the articles you sent me safe, and have delivered the presents on to the Chiefs for which they are very thankful.

I shall attend to the hints you have furnished me with - am glad you have settled with Cap<sup>n</sup> Macpherson respecting the virtualling [?] of the Chiefs - We are comfortable and happy.

Farewell my Dear friends farewell. I entertain at present no hopes of ever visitg England again - May our next interview be around the Saviours Throne.

Your very faithful Ser<sup>t</sup>.

Tho.<sup>s</sup> Kendall
